

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air "Stolen Honor" (pure propoganda) days before the election is an abuse of the public airwaves and yet another example of the dangers of corporate consolidation of the media. This does not serve our public interest and is extremely harmful to our democracy. Please revoke their license.